- ◆ Discussion of the roles of the student, teacher and accompanist in VCE Music
- ◆ Performances of a selection of works from the VCE Music Performance Prescribed List by Vanessa George with accompanist Alison Conrau
- ◆ Discussion of the final exam– criteria and repertoire selection

About Megan George:

Megan George had the pleasure of studying clarinet and saxophone with Peter Clinch at Melbourne State College. Her teaching career has seen her working at various State and Private Schools in Melbourne and she has also been a sessional clarinet teacher at Melbourne University.

Megan has been at Eltham High School for nearly twenty years, teaching clarinet & saxophone, conducting the Concert Band and Clarinet Choir and was the Director of Music for two years. She currently works part time as the specialist clarinet teacher, teaching students in year 7-12 and conducting small ensembles. VCE music is an area that she is particularly interested in, having been a panel member on numerous VCAA committees pertaining to the Prescribed List of Notated Works and VCE Music in general, and an assessor for VCE Music Performance – Solo.

Megan was a founding member of CLASAX and spent a number of years on the Committee.
