

The Clarinet and Saxophone Society of Victoria is pleased to present

2015 VCE Professional Development Afternoon

Sunday August 2nd between 2-5pm, Balwyn Library with Ian Morgan

This session is for clarinet and saxophone teachers of all levels of experience, led by Melbourne music educator Ian Morgan. Topics will focus on specific clarinet and saxophone teaching techniques and troubleshooting, as well as more general music teaching issues.

Please feel free to suggest topics which you would like to discuss!

Professional Development certificates will be available for teachers wanting to use this time to contribute towards Victorian Institute of Teaching professional learning quotas.

About Ian Morgan:

Ian Morgan studied the clarinet in London with Jack Brymer, Thea King and John McCaw and was for 36 years the Associate Principal clarinet of the Melbourne Symphony Orchestra. His performing career also included concertos and guest appearances in many other Australian orchestras, and regular chamber music performances. Retirement from the Melbourne Symphony in 2002 has allowed the development of a lifelong interest in teaching with part time appointments at several tertiary music departments, including Monash University.

Ian has had a long association with the AMEB in Victoria as an examiner, syllabus writer, Director of AMEB (Vic) and Chair of the woodwind advisory panel. He has also been a Director of the Melbourne Symphony Orchestra, was Organiser of the Melbourne International Festival of Single Reeds in 2005 and the Australian Festival of Clarinet and Saxophone in 2011, and was President of the Clarinet and Saxophone Society of Victoria for twenty five years. Following his retirement from this role, Ian was made Patron of CLASAX.
