

CLARINET MEGA DAY

The Sir Zelman Cowen School of Music invites all clarinet players to the Clarinet Mega Day V. Come along for a day of all of things clarinet. Featuring masterclasses with leading professionals, orchestral excerpt class, warm up session, vendor exhibits, panel discussions, VCE masterclasses and join in with a performance of the Monash Clarinet Mega Day Clarinet Choir.

Artists include:

David Krakauer (USA)

Clarinet Faculty Manhattan School of Music,
International soloist and klezmer specialist

Alan Vivian

Former Senior Lecturer Australian National University, former Principal Clarinet, Sydney Symphony Orchestra,
Australian Chamber Orchestra

David Griffiths

Ensemble Liaison, Senior Lecturer in Clarinet, Monash University

Paul Champion

Principal Clarinet, Orchestra Victoria

DATE:

Sunday 10th September 2017

TIME:

8.45 am Registration

Closing Concert commences at 4.00 pm

LOCATION:

Sir Zelman Cowen School of Music,
Music Auditorium, Building 68
55 Scenic Boulevard,
Monash University Clayton Campus

REGISTRATION FEE:

$50 (for all attendees);

Additional $70.00 masterclass participation fee

Full payment and registration is to be made via shop.monash.edu

Search for Music

Masterclass Information:

Masterclasses are offered by some of Australia's leading Clarinetists.

There will be open classes, orchestral excerpt classes, and VCE student masterclasses.

To participate in a masterclasses, please email a brief CV and preferred Masterclass repertoire to:
david.griffiths@monash.edu

You will be notified by email as to your participation in a masterclass and what literature you should prepare. Participation is on a first come first serve basis.